9. Members Code of Conduct:

Arising from The Local Authorities (Model Code of Conduct) (Wales) (Amendment) Order 2016 a new Model Code of Conduct, a copy of which is attached was made on 27 January 2016. The Council is required to adopt this new Code of Conduct.

The Order amends the model Code of Conduct for local government members, set out in the schedule to the Local Authorities (Model Code of Conduct) (Wales) Order 2008 as follows:-

- The 2013 Act transferred responsibility for maintaining the register of interests of members of Community Councils from the Monitoring Officer of the Principal Authority for the area to the 'proper officer' of each Community Council with effect from 1 May 2015. A number of consequential amendments are made to the Model Code to reflect this change, so that in relation to a Community Council, a reference to a Monitoring Officer is replaced with a reference to a proper officer of the Community Council.
- Paragraph 15 of the Model Code, dealing with the register of Members' interests, is amended to clarify that any interest disclosed for the first time must be entered into the register. This is not a change of policy, but clarifies the original intention. The exemption for Community Councillors from the requirement to register upfront is maintained.
- The obligation on a Member to report a potential breach of the Code of Conduct to the Public Service Ombudsman is omitted from the Code.
- Paragraph 10(2)(b) of the Model Code is omitted. This is to overcome unintended difficulties in the practical application of this paragraph in relation to participation in business relating to constituency interests. A member participating in the consideration of a ward matter is nonetheless under an obligation to act objectively in the wider public interest in accordance with paragraph 8 of the Model Code.

10. Payments to members of community and town councils:

To decide on Determination 46 to 54, which are permissive powers. Decisions taken will apply to all Members at the levels determined by the Independent Remuneration Panel. An individual Member may make a personal decision to elect to forgo part or all of the entitlement to any of these allowances by giving notice in writing to the proper officer of the Council.

Details of the determinations are attached.
